It was reported today that the building on Sixth street formerly occupied by Thornhill the florist had been rented to some people who are going to run a box ball bowling alley there this winter. If this is true it will be welcome news as last season many enjoyed the sport on the alleys on Sixth street.

It has been decided by the fair association to charge the nominal fee of ten cents for the admission of adults to the armory, where the exhibit will be held, and five cents for children. Already the success of the exhibition has been assured and this small admission will help along the finances.

High tide quality and low tide prices. The rise and fall of the waters, one of nature's miracles, forms an excellent example with which to compare the two trade in increasing characteristics, low prices and high quality, which are so strongly embodied in Bostonian dress shoes for men, $3.50 to $5.00, at Talchert's, 610 Douglas avenue.

Last night at a meeting of the Fraternal Order of Eagles held in the Fraternal Brotherhood hall, the installation of officers to fill the unexpired term, which ends January 1, was held. The following officers were sworn in: Worthy president, W. C. Dennis; worthy vice president, A. M. Adler; chaplain, A. Rainey. After the installation services the initiation of A. Rainey into the lodge took place. The evening was concluded by a light lunch served in the parlors of the hall.

In the past month 22 volumes have been added to the bound volumes on the shelves of the Carnegie library. A daily paper and a weekly periodical have also been given to the library. Of the 22 volumes added to the list 20 have been presented by friends. A month ago the shelves held 7,125 volumes and at the present there are 7,147. The records show that in the past month 1,864 persons have made use of the books in the library and to the list of cards issued 36 have been added. On the tables of the institution there are four daily papers, five weekly periodicals, and nine monthly magazines. This record is one that is a credit to any library in a small city.

Eller's "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" never grows old. There runs through it a vein of pathos particularly touching and sweet. It speaks the musical language of the heart. It is more than a play. It is a moral classic. They will exhibit here next Friday under a big tent.

Word has been received from former Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. George Fitzsimmons at Chicago stating that as far as the Windy City he and Mrs. Fitzsimmons had had a delightful trip. According to their schedule they arrived in Rochester yesterday, where they will spend the winter.

Despite the heavy rains in the vicinity of Las Vegas a large number of farmers have arrived and the fair will open up in the morning rain or no rain. For the past week displays from the different parts of the county have been arriving and the displays of grain, corn and vegetables will be the best ever seen in Las Vegas. A number of the prominent merchants have entered exhibits and these will add greatly to the attractiveness of the fair. Gross, Kelly & Company have planned a display of Empire flour and several other firms will have similar displays. Even though the rain should delay the arrival of exhibits from the country the fair will be opened tomorrow and conducted according to schedule.

So far this week the people of Las Vegas and the surrounding country have been treated to "57 varieties" of weather and the prospects for a change in the varieties seemed mighty slim today. Sunday and Monday the sun shone brightly and real summer suits were quite comfortable. Yesterday it was not a strange sight to see persons on the streets wearing overcoats and last night, with Jack Frost out snooping around taking a look at the flowers and plants, a person with a coat was to be envied by the man who wished he had been smart enough to have worn one. Today the entire vicinity has been treated to a cold rain that has soaked the country thoroughly and the weatherman has had the nerve to say that tomorrow will repeat the same story. Who believes in the weather man, anyway?

Hear and see our solo orchestra, demon scenes and spectacular effects. Mary in the heavenly realms and many other scenes that go to form the greatest production of this grand old historic play. Eller's "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" here next Friday under canvas.

NEW INSURRECTION IN SISTER REPUBLIC

GENERAL REYES, FORMER CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY, HAS UNITED WITH DIAZ

Mexico City, Oct. 4.—El Pais today published a sensational telegram from San Antonio, Tex., to the effect that the followers of General Reyes and the deposed president, General Diaz, have established a junta in that city and await the arrival of Reyes. The telegram permits the inference that a new insurrection is to be begun.

The paper also publishes a dispatch from Juarez saying a revolt will be begun before December. General Madero, the president elect, attaches little importance to these reports, but it is understood that he is taking measures to keep himself well informed of developments.

General Reyes, who abandoned his candidacy for the presidency just before the election of Sunday last, sailed from Havana for New Orleans yesterday.

Samuel Espinosa de los Monteros, president of the Central Revista club, is said to be in San Antonio. A cablegram received here Sunday from Reyes said he was going to San Antonio.

Reyes Leaves Cuba

Havana, Oct. 4.—General Bernardo Reyes, who arrived here Monday from Mexico, sailed yesterday on the steamer Excelsior for New Orleans. It is presumed here that General Reyes is going to New York.

Announcements for an afternoon of fun on Thursday of this week for the Junior department of the Y. M. C. A. have been sent out by Secretary Arthur Marwick and tomorrow afternoon the boys will be brought together for the first time since George Fitzsimmons left Las Vegas. Marwick has planned for some sports in the pool in the form of swimming and diving after which there will be races and games in the gymnasium. After their recreation the boys will be served with refreshments in the parlors, and Miss May Rose, teacher of elocution at the Normal will give a reading. Mr. Marwick is enthusiastic over the work of the association in the west and has plans in his head for many good times for the members this winter. Friday evening the members of the senior department will be called together and a program of the winter's work outlined. Prominent business men will address the meeting and a pleasant evening is promised for all.

PRESIDENT IN WYOMING

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 4.—This was Taft day in Wyoming, and at every stopping place on the president's itinerary it was observed in Fourth of July fashion. The nation's chief executive was the guest of the city of Cheyenne for several hours, and the people regardless of political affiliations, greeted him with a warmth and heartiness of welcome not exceeded in his transcontinental tour. A reception committee headed by Governor Carey met the distinguished visitor at the station and escorted him to the state capitol. The city's ordinary population, with hundreds of visitors from other parts of the state, was massed along the streets on the line of march.
